

Ultrasonic Level Switch

Features:

- |                            |                                                                                          |
|----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Non contact :     | No effect of build up ( deposition on sensor )                                           |
| 2 Versatile:        | Suitable for Liquid, Slurries, Solids. Ideal for sticky material.                        |
| 3 Construction:     | Rugged & compact design. Transducer & electronics combined                               |
| 4 Maintenance Free: | No moving parts hence virtually maintenance free                                         |
| 5 Inventory:        | Same switch can be used for different tank heights.                                      |
| 6 Programming:      | Easy two buttons programming                                                             |
| 7 Display:          | Three Digit 9 mm LCD for display of distance and Multi segment graph for operating State |